

WILL THEY SUBMIT TO IT?
If Wm. M. Stewart should succeed in being re-elected, it will not be the fault of the people of Nevada. We say it will not be their fault. We will correct that to the extent that they only erred in judgement in selecting consummate scoundrels and sellouts instead of honorable men to represent them in the State Legislature. Stewart had a clear field at the election. There was no avowed candidate against him, and the issue was squarely made for and against him individually, but not in favor of any other particular person. The result was that he failed to elect half the number of legislators necessary to insure his election. At least seven-eighths of the voters of the State declared that they wanted no more of Wm. M. Stewart as one of Nevada's representatives in the United States Senate. If he should be elected, it will be by absolute bribery of members solemnly pledged not to vote for him. This is a mathematical fact which cannot be controverted, and which none of his hiring supporters, or any secondarily sellout who betrays his constituents will attempt to controvert. Any member not elected on a Stewart legislative ticket who votes for the corporation candidate, will advertise himself a purchased villain and his guilt will be as apparent to every one as though five hundred of the best citizens of the State had seen the blood money paid into the hands of the culpable wretch and a receipt given for the amount.

And yet the hiring horde of bribes, herders and gun lighting ruffians at Carson claim that their master can count upon anywhere from 23 to 28 votes on the first ballot, enough, or more than enough, to effect his election. If this is true there never was a people more shamefully betrayed than the residents of Nevada, nor a people whose wrong would better justify the meting out of summary justice upon the heads, or around the necks, of these ill begotten betrayers. After making a successful struggle at the ballot box to free themselves from political thralldom, worse and more humiliating than African slavery, to be again sold into bondage by the treachery, cupidity and unparalleled infamy of those in whom they trusted for redemption, is more than a long suffering people can or ought to endure. Their long suffering has been borne with patience until that attribute has ceased to be a virtue. If the glorious victory achieved at the ballot box is to be barred into defeat by the treachery of those to whom they confided their liberties, they will be worse than cowards and deserving of perpetual servitude, if they fail to wreak their righteous vengeance upon those, who for a few paltry pieces of gold, again riveted the shackles of corporation slavery upon them.

The hellish methods and doings of the gang at Carson in the last few weeks; the open faced bribery; importation of hired ruffians to intimidate legislators; the system of espionage and herding of doubtful legislators are a disgrace to the State which ought to bring down upon the heads of the villainous crew, the righteous wrath of every respectable citizen of the battle born State. In no other state in the Union would such proceedings have been tolerated half so long as they have been here. The people would have arisen in their might, proceeded to the State capital, and driven the miserable horde of dispoilers over the mountains and into the sea.

RATHER CONSISTENT.
The Elko Independent says all sorts of hard things about Mr. Newlands being placed on the Democratic ticket by the State Central committee and accuses the members of the committee of treachery to the party in placing him there. If our memory serves us correctly, the editor of the Independent was also placed on the State ticket for Regent of the State University, when he was east and it was supposed that he would support the platform of the State Convention. When he returned home and commenced booming Stewart in his paper there was a loud protest from Democrats in Elko county, demanding that he be removed from the ticket upon which he had been placed by the State committee. If our memory further serves us correctly, the gentleman declined to come off the ticket, and as there was some question as to the power of the committee to remove him, his name was permitted to remain notwithstanding the fact that he was in open opposition to one of the principal planks of the platform on which he was supposed to be running. The committee was censured far more severely, so far as was known at their headquarters, for placing the Independent editor on the ticket, than Mr. Newlands. In regard to the latter, there were some complaints, but when the matter was explained and the reason given, nearly all of the complainants agreed that the committee acted wisely and for the best interest of the party in the action. We regret having to allude to such unpleasant matters, but as the Independent appears to hold the Journal responsible for the acts of the Democratic State Central Committee, we cannot help reminding our Elko friend that Mr. Newlands was not the only one placed upon the ticket at their instance, who was objectionable to some Democrats, and we leave it to the editor himself to judge which of the two candidates named had the best or least right to occupy a place on the Democratic State ticket last fall.

WILL THEY DO THEIR DUTY?
Or Will They Elect a Representative of a Corporation.
A crisis is approaching in political affairs in Nevada and on next Tuesday the people of Nevada will know whether their representatives have remained true or again consigned them to the tender mercies of the Southern Pacific railroad company for another term of years. Senator Stewart is the avowed candidate of that corporation and his election is an admission that the people have humbly bowed to their will. There are a few men who in an ill advised moment permitted themselves to be pledged to the support of W. M. Stewart. However contrary to their private or personal feelings this pledge may be, it should be kept at least one ballot. When it is demonstrated that Wm. M. Stewart has not, in spite of the tremendous power behind him, been able to coerce the people into his return, they should certainly consider themselves absolved from any further support of a man whom the people have rejected. It should be borne in mind by each and every one of them that their duty to the people who have placed their confidence in their integrity is far above any pledge to any single individual and the will of the people should be their guide.

A failure to so conduct themselves will be construed as an admission on their part that they fear the wrath of the Southern Pacific and its agent, C. C. Wallace, more than they do the praise of the people and the prosperity of the State. They should not be deluded and led away from the main question by cries of treachery on the part of anyone.

In the sovereign State of Nevada nothing more than a prize to be fought for by this or that individual by means of packed conventions, intimidation and political manipulation? Are we free born American citizens, to be traded and sold like chattels by a soulless corporation? Are we to forever kiss the hand that smites us and which has retarded all progress in our beloved State by a corruption that bids defiance to all law and decency? For the first time in its history the people of the State have made an attempt to throw off the yoke that galls them and rid the commonwealth of those who have given it the title of "the rotten borough." They have succeeded in securing a majority of the Legislature against the man who represents all that we have been fighting; now it remains for that majority to fulfill the wishes expressed at the recent election and send Wm. M. Stewart back to California to his master, Collis P. Huntington. Godspeed the day.—Times-Review.

A Good Show.
The lease of life for "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is phenomenal. It is a play that has been hacked and butchered and gaudied unmercifully, and yet it survives, because it tells a story which interests and stirs up humanity. It can be truly said of the Stowe Uncle Tom's Cabin Company that every performer in his or her particular line is an artist. The scenic, mechanical, calumny and electrical effects are truly wonderful.

The John F. Stowe Uncle Tom's Cabin Company will appear at McKissick's Opera House next Thursday evening.

Remarkable Escape.
Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottle of this Great Discovery at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Justice Court.
The case of Mrs. Mosford vs. Washoe County Bank et al. was continued yesterday and will be continued Monday. James Conway will be brought before the court Monday to answer a charge of grand larceny.

Mice of All Colors.
The National Mouse Club of England recently held an exhibition where several hundred mice competed for gold medals, champion cups and various other prizes. These little creatures are not the ordinary everyday mice which scow the house to take refuge on a chair. They are well bred mice that expected to be petted and caressed and treated as tenderly as a pet cat or dog.

By careful breeding they have developed great variety in coloring and sometimes in shape. One very choice style of animal, called the spiny mouse, has a row of bristling hair for a spinal ornament and is a very cute miniature reproduction of a porcupine. The familiar white mice so often seen for sale on the streets here have been bred with black eyes instead of red ones. It has taken several years to produce these results, but the society now claims to be able to furnish mice in 12 or 13 different shades. To any one who is able to overcome the fear of mice they are dainty, delicate little studies at any time, but when they play around in suits of chocolate, sable, fawn, jet black, tortoise or golden agouti they become perfectly fascinating.

As in the case of all fads of this kind, the prices brought by these little pets are extremely steep. Fifteen dollars or $20 is not a large price to pay for a well bred mouse, and some of them have been sold for as high as $25.

A Judicial Ruling.
During the hearing of a case at the Bloomsbury county court counsel referred to the defendant, an Oxford master of arts, as "this man," whereupon defendant's counsel protested, saying he might at least have used the word "gentleman." Judge Bacon—Nonsense. That is the sort of affectation you often hear among women when they say "you ought to call me a lady." In my opinion man is a much better title than gentleman.—London Telegraph

Former Parliamentary Privileges.
The privilege of freedom from arrest enjoyed by members of parliament is confined to civil matters; but, since the abolition of imprisonment for debt, this immunity has been shorn of most of its utility. Formerly it was a very useful privilege. Disraeli says of one of the characters in his first novel, "Vivian Grey," that "the only way to keep him out of the house of correction was to get him into the house of commons." Parliament was then a convenient haven of refuge for "splendid paupers."

In one case an English member named Mills, who owed £28,000 and for whose arrest a warrant was in the hands of the sheriff, avoided imprisonment by purchasing a seat for one of the old "rotten boroughs" in 1807 for the sum of £1,000. In another case an Irishman named Bourke was confined in the King's Bench prison about 70 years ago in execution for a considerable debt. His friends got him elected for an Irish constituency, but he never entered the house. On his release after election he fled to the continent and remained there.

Again in 1835 the year before Disraeli published "Vivian Grey," a man who was in prison for debt was returned for Bererley, a small English borough, and was forthwith released on a warrant issued by Mr. Speaker. It was a case in real life of from the house of correction to the house of commons.—

The Carson Appeal says it has calls for 25,000 extra copies since the inauguration of the Senatorial contest. We don't know who called for those sent here. The people of this bailiwick gave their answer to Stewart on election day and have seen nothing since to cause them to change the opinion then expressed.—Times-Review.

NEWLANDS' SPEECH.

Much Enthusiasm Manifested By the Large Gathering Present.

Brightly blazing bon fires and music by the band announced to the people of Reno last evening that Francis G. Newlands was to speak in answer to the infamous charges that have been made against him. Soon the people began to move by ones and twos towards the opera house, where the building was filled with a large audience.

The people waited quietly and expectantly for the appearance of Mr. Newlands, and he was greeted with loud applause when he stepped out upon the stage. We will not attempt at this late hour to publish the address in full, suffice it to say that in substance it was much the same as the one delivered by him at Carson last Wednesday night.

The address was both logical and eloquent, and left no doubt in the minds of our thinking citizens concerning the fallacy of the allegations made against him by Stewart and his practiced corps of scheming politicians. Mr. Newlands is thoroughly wedded to the cause of silver and a staunch enemy of the political organization of that apparently omnipotent and omnipresent octopus, the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, which holds so many unscrupulous legislators in its grasp by the power of money. He was greeted with applause as he spoke of his firm position on these vital subjects, and laid bare the flimsy foundation upon which his enemies have based their charges against him.

Mr. Newlands has routed his dishonest enemies completely, and it is high time that Stewart and his gang of quack doctors, who prescribe lead pills for political opponents, were greasing their guns and getting down to work, if they still have hope for the "grand old man."

A Fatal Accident.

John G. Hopt, while driving to Peavine after a load of wood Friday night, fell or was thrown from the wagon seat and, it is thought, broke his neck. Mr. Hopt was well known here. He was a native of Indiana and aged 36 years. It is not known whether Hopt was thrown from the high seat by the wagon striking a rock or by the horses shying at some object near the road. The team went on to Peavine without a driver, from where a party went back and found the body by the roadside.

Some hold the opinion that Hopt fainted or succumbed to heart trouble and fell from the wagon in an unconscious condition. They have ground for the belief in the fact that the whip, which rested in a socket near the seat was found broken off when the driverless team came into Peavine.

The funeral will take place from Sanders' undertaking parlors at 2 o'clock to-morrow.

Protect the Fish.

Steps should be taken to enforce the fish law, as there are now a number engaged in unlawfully taking fish from the river. If this practice should be followed by everybody, the Truckee would soon be depopulated of the finny tribe. It seems that all true lovers of the rod should band together and see that laws are passed and enforced. It would also be a good idea to pass a law forbidding the shipping of fish and game out of the State. There are a dozen or more Japs and Chinamen who fish day and night during the open season, and most any other time, for that matter, and make good money by shipping to California. Yet these same Japs and Chinamen pay not a cent in taxes, nor in any way aid in promoting the fish industry. What's the matter with a little concerted action? Let somebody take the lead.

Rapid and Excellent Work.

The JOURNAL is under obligations to Andrew Maute, Superintendent of State Printing, for the annual report of the State Controller for 1898 and the biennial report of the Warden of the State Prison for 1897-8. The State Printing Office has made an enviable record under the superintendency of Mr. Maute, he having had a number of the annual reports of State officers completed at the beginning of the session of the Legislature and others have followed in rapid succession, so that their publication is about completed, a record that we believe has not been equaled in the history of the State office. The typographical work is certainly a splendid recommendation for Foreman Mackey and his able assistants.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in the most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement, I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts per bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

Will the Legislature Have a Say

During the campaign just past Stewart said:

"I am going to be returned to the Senate whether the people of Nevada want me or not." The time is getting close at hand when it will be seen if the people of Nevada are the power or whether the Southern Pacific rules Nevada. The people do not want Stewart. That is self-evident from the vote on the Legislative ticket throughout the State. Now the question comes, will those elected to the Legislature be true to the people who elected them, or will they fall down for the railroad that is sapping Nevada's very life blood? Will a few paltry dollars be sufficient to make those elected play the Judas part? We will soon know now, and any man who does will have a hard row to hoe, we are thinking, with his constituency after doing so. Don't let us forget Stewart's threat, and see if the people are to have the say or not. Beat him now and the boss rule of Wallace and the Southern Pacific is at an end in this State. If Wallace loses now he is done in Nevada and a new era dawns for us.—Advocate.

Good Work.

Should the Gazette continue in the good work it has begun and continued to do, for the last week, it will in the future be a credit to its owners and to the community in which it is published. The repressive influences that have operated upon the paper, has discounted its usefulness. The same repressive influences that have been applied to the Gazette, have been applied to other papers, and the result is the complete control of the political machinery of the Silver party, and the prostitution of the State to the dishonorable purposes of Wm. M. Stewart, O. C. Wallace and the gang of political bandits who prowl in the byways of Nevada politics to capture the unwary voter and to lead the weak legislator through his capidity to shame and disgrace.

An Interesting Case.

All people are interested in a new case that has recently cropped up in Reno, and they have good reason for being so. This case contains many striking features. It is Mr. F. P. Dann's show case on Virginia street, down by the iron bridge. It is very beautiful, his new window display of all that is modern in photography. There one may see large opalotypes, small autotypes and lovely porcelain. Just think! Artistic photographs on genuine porcelain. And what do you think of this? He makes photographs on handkerchiefs—silk handkerchiefs. What more appropriate present could be imagined than one of these with your photo on it?

We sincerely hope the new brothers will not have to go to bread and water diet before the first two weeks for they might say to themselves "What mortals we fools be."—Argonaut.

A long felt want is being supplied. A liberal supply of gravel is being dumped and scattered on the main streets, greatly to their improvement.

Will Brubeck, son of the proprietor of the Hotel Amador, at Amador, passed through Reno yesterday on his way to the Stockton Business College.

The epidemic of mumps that has held sway in Reno for some time seems to be subsiding and that detestable scourge, the grip, is becoming quite general instead.

The Washoe Lunch Counter has another appetizing display of good things in the show window. For a first-class meal, cooked to a turn go to the lunch counter to-day. The bill of fare includes every thing procurable in this section of the country.

Senator Stewart is still claiming dead men's honors. He claims the establishment of the State University at Reno, when, in fact, the bill was fathered by the late Senator Morrill, and Stewart was not even a member of the Congress that passed it.—Times-Review.

The Southern Pacific railroad is endeavoring to elect a gold bug for United States Senator from California, a silver bug from Nevada and a polygamist from Utah. If all are elected who will deny that Huntington's interests will be ably represented in the Senate.—News.

Beb Parry says he has been losing ground in his Senatorial fight lately and it is all owing to legislators going below "to get a breath of salt sea air" instead of stopping over here and drinking Wieland's extra pale. Wieland's beer is just a little the best thing in town.

Since Senator Stewart retired from the Knight-Watchman that paper has come out strongly and squarely Democratic on the lines of the Democratic platform of Nevada—endorsing "every line, word and syllable of the national platform of 1898." Had Stewart and the Silver party acted in the same manner, they wouldn't be in the hole they are to-day.—Times-Review.

Mr. Wm. A. Fine, manager of the Beatrice Priest Fine Concert Company, which performed hereabout a year ago, called at the JOURNAL office yesterday. He is traveling in advance of a first class concert company, which will be here about the 8th of next month. Miss Mary Roberts of Carson will have charge of all arrangements in connection with the appearance of the company on this circuit.

Senator Daniel has denied any connection with the presence of Colonel Jack Chinn in Carson. The Kentucky gun man evidently believed he was safe in using Senator Daniel's name, as that gentleman was in Havana, but unfortunately he returned a few days too soon. There is no doubt but what Col. Chinn is a liar or his defenders have misrepresented him. We are far enough away to make the assertion with safety.—Times-Review.
